DIARY NOTES

DD/S W

28 April 1965

1. I attended the swearing-in of Admiral Raborn as Director of Central Intelligence and Dick Helms as Deputy Director of Central Intelligence at the White House.
2. I attended a luncheon at the Metropolitan Club given by Mr. McCone for the members of the United States Intelligence Board and selected members of the Agency--apparently limited to Deputy Directors and one or two others most closely associated with USIB.
3. I gave the welcoming address to the new Midcareer Course students. They appeared to be a good group of students, and I anticipate that this will be another successful Course.
